Document 84: Ecclesiastical Rebuttal to Forced Medical Procedures

All forced medical testing, treatment, surgical intervention, or pharmaceutical administration is hereby rebuked.

The body of the living man is inviolable and sacred under divine law.

Sealed in private ecclesiastical authority. No witness required.

Document 85: Ecclesiastical Declaration of Right to Self-Governed Economy

The trust retains the right to develop and maintain an autonomous economic system based on sacred exchange, barter, and mutual trust.

No currency monopoly or fiat scheme shall interfere with this right.

Sealed in private ecclesiastical authority. No witness required.

Document 86: Ecclesiastical Rebuttal to Debt Collection Agencies

I do not contract with debt collection agencies.

All debts presumed without verified, voluntary, and sacred agreement are null and void.

Sealed in private ecclesiastical authority. No witness required.

Document 87: Ecclesiastical Right to Private Burial and Death Rites

This trust holds the sacred right to perform its own burial, transition, and remembrance rites outside of public or corporate governance.

No mortuary or coroner intervention is permitted without consent.

Sealed in private ecclesiastical authority. No witness required.

Document 88: Ecclesiastical Rebuttal to Educational Licensure Requirements

I reject the premise that one must hold a state license to teach, mentor, or share sacred knowledge.

All sacred instruction through this trust is divinely authorized.

Sealed in private ecclesiastical authority. No witness required.

Document 89: Ecclesiastical Notice of Sacred Cultural and Language Rights

This trust preserves the sacred right to use and revive native languages, names, and cultural expressions without censorship or suppression.

These are living traditions, not commodities.

Sealed in private ecclesiastical authority. No witness required.

Document 90: Ecclesiastical Rebuttal to Corporate Land Registration

Land under this trust shall not be registered under any corporate deed system or commercial registry.

Sacred land cannot be owned, only stewarded.

Sealed in private ecclesiastical authority. No witness required.

Document 91: Ecclesiastical Declaration of Independent Timekeeping

The trust operates under sacred time cycles and lunar-solar calendars.

Imposed Gregorian time systems may not override trust observances or ecclesiastical schedules.

Sealed in private ecclesiastical authority. No witness required.

Document 92: Ecclesiastical Rebuttal to Institutional Food and Water Regulation

The trust reserves full right to grow, store, distribute, and bless its own food and water without regulatory interference.

All nourishment is a sacred ritual.

Sealed in private ecclesiastical authority. No witness required.

Document 93: Ecclesiastical Claim of Sacred Recordkeeping Autonomy

The trust shall maintain its own sacred recordkeeping system, including births, unions, deeds, and transitions.

No governmental agency may compel registration of these events.

Sealed in private ecclesiastical authority. No witness required.
